SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is announcing the availability of a draft guidance for industry entitled "Labeling for Biosimilar Products." The Biologics Price Competition and Innovation Act of 2009 (BCPI Act), enacted as part of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Affordable Care Act) (Pub. L.

111-148) on March 23, 2010, created an abbreviated licensure pathway for biological products demonstrated to be biosimilar to or interchangeable with a reference product. Section 351(k) of the PHS Act (42 U.S.C. 262(k)), added by the BPCI Act, sets forth the requirements for an application for a proposed biosimilar product and an application or supplement for a proposed interchangeable product. Under section 351(k) of the PHS Act, a proposed biological product that is demonstrated to be biosimilar to a reference product can rely on certain existing scientific knowledge about the safety, purity, and potency of the reference product to support licensure, and this is reflected in the approach to biosimilar product labeling.

In this draft guidance, FDA outlines its recommendations for biosimilar product labeling. A demonstration of biosimilarity means, among other things, that FDA has determined that there are no clinically meaningful differences between the proposed product and the reference product in terms of safety, purity and potency. Accordingly, biosimilar applicants should incorporate relevant data and information from the reference product labeling, with appropriate product-specific modifications as described in the draft guidance.

We invite comment on the draft guidance, including whether patient labeling (e.g., Patient Information, Medication Guide, and Instructions for Use) should include a biosimilarity statement similar to the statement described in section IV.C.1 of the draft guidance.

This draft guidance is being issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The draft guidance, when finalized, will represent the current thinking of FDA on labeling for biosimilar products. It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

II. The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This draft guidance refers to previously approved collections of information found in FDA regulations. These collections of information are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The collections of information under 21 CFR part 601 for the submission of a biologics license application under section 351(k) of the PHS Act have been approved under OMB control number 0910-0719; the collections of information under 21 CFR 201.57 for the submission of labeling have been approved under OMB control number 0910-0572; the collections of information under 21 CFR part 600 for the submission of adverse experience reporting for licensed biological products and general records have been approved under OMB control number 0910-0308; and the collections of information under 21 CFR part 600 for the submission of MedWatch reporting forms (FDA Form 3500 and FDA Form 3500A) have been approved under OMB control number 0910-0291.
